Greetings from your President:

Fall is in the air and DLOG Board and committees are in high gear! The Board had its first meeting this fall and special thanks to Tom Conroy for filling in for me as chair of the meeting. I was recovering from some dizziness and am thankful for Tom. Lots of items were discussed. The Competition Committee has met and Scott Finlay has already secured some of the judges for the Competition and the master class teacher has been contracted. So, it is indeed full steam ahead! University of Northern Colorado presented the program for the first Opera on Tuesday on September 13.

We are pleased that we have some new members as a result of the Summer Party. By now, you have received your DLOG directories and the events card.

I am pleased to announce Karen Stevens has accepted the position of Recording Secretary for the Board. We all look forward to working with her in the important position.

I wish you a wonderful fall with many good times viewing the wonderful colors we have in this beautiful state.

Stay healthy and remember to smell the flowers. They will soon be gone.

Dennis Jackson
President DLOG 2022-23

Announcing Master Class (A Play with Music)

For the 40th season of the Town Hall Arts Center in Littleton, Colorado, a play of great interest to DLOG members is being put on January 12, 13, and 14. This is your advance notice to go see Master Class (A Play With Music).

Winner of the 1996 Tony Award for Best Play, this production dramatizes the great opera diva, Maria Callas, conducting a master class as she coaxes, prods, and inspires students – “victims” as she calls them – into giving the performance of their lives. Inspired by a series of master classes the great diva taught at Julliard toward the end of her career.
