Our Mission

Denver Lyric Opera Guild's mission is to support and encourage young opera singers through grants to University Opera Programs and Young Artist Programs; to provide continuing education for members' appreciation and knowledge of opera; and by sponsoring an annual Competition for Colorado Opera Singers.

Summer Party 2024 Recap

Denver Lyric Opera Guild's newest grant recipient, Art Song Colorado were pleased to present their fun-filled program Amuse Bouche to 80 members and guests. The cast of 5 under the direction of Eapen Leubner sang and frolicked their way through a lively program of French Art Songs.

A buffet brunch preceded the show along with a drawing of small gifts provided by the largely independent businesses in nearby downtown Littleton.

All adjourned to the patio for the Amuse Bouche entr'acte for dessert and summer beverages. (The mini desserts were such a hit you may see them again at Opera on Tuesday, just a hint)

Returning for the final act, the show concluded with clapping to the music of Offenbach and a hint of 'can-can' – not exactly Moulin Rouge but somewhere close.

The cast all said they had just as much fun as the audience and hope to perform for DLOG again.

Special thanks to the Summer Party Committee:

- Karen Bruggentheis
- Lisa Curtis
- Marleen Diamond
- Becky Gantner
- Ian Hoyman

Additional thanks to our sponsors and donors:

- Leigh Maclay
- Roger and Nancy Celius

- Becky Gantner
- Lisa Curtis
- Classic Pianos
- The management and staff of Columbine Country Club

Looking ahead to 2025:

Early next year we will be looking for volunteers to organize the Summer Party. It's fun and a great way to collaborate and get to know other members.... please consider volunteering.

About the PIANO

Classic Pianos of Denver provide the lovely 5' Yamaha grand pianos used for DLOG's Opera on Tuesday

luncheons and the Summer Party. The pianos are fully tuned, on rollers so each accompanist can place the piano as they choose and at the conclusion of our events are promptly and safely returned. We frequently hear from the accompanists what a pleasure it is to play these pianos.

We receive a preferred rate and were given a special discount for the Summer Party. The gracious support of the management and staff of Classic Pianos is deeply appreciated.

If you are interested in renting or perhaps purchasing a piano, you are welcome to contact Axel Weyland, 720-968-6864 or visit their showroom at 1332 South Broadway, Denver.

Opera in the Park 2024

Aug 25, Boulder Bandshell

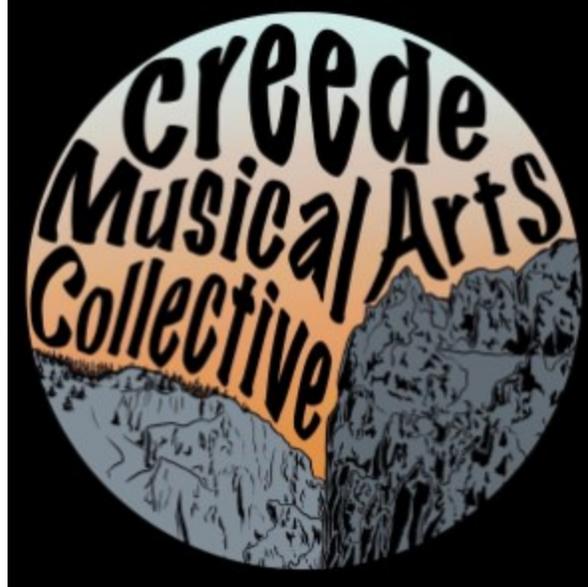

Join us for an enchanting evening under the stars with Boulder Opera's annual "Opera in the Park" concert. This year, we invite you to delve into the opulent world of royalty through the captivating arias, scenes and choruses from some of the most famous operas. The concert will feature selections from Handel's Giulio Cesare, Strauss's Der Rosenkavalier, Verdi's Nabucco and Macbeth, and Britten's A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Prepare to be swept away by the powerful voices of our talented performers and the evocative themes of power, intrigue, and romance that have captivated audiences for centuries. There will be a fenced beer garden and food trucks..

Opera on Tap at Brewability - Fairy Tales and Singer Wails...

Sat Sept 7, Brewability, Englewood

Do you know which Disney character said this?

"A woman doesn't know how precious her voice is until it has been silenced..."

Or this?

"You control your destiny. You don't need magic to do it."

One quote is from a hero—and one is from a villain. Do you know which is which?

Come with us to find out as we explore the line between good and evil through the lens of Disney and other fairy tale music. We also encourage you to dress up as your favorite fairy tale or Disney character, if you want to—we surely will!

We'll tell you who said each quote... but only at the event. So you don't want to miss it!.
